RICHMOND, Feb. 13.—By advices just received from Washington, via Norfolk, we learn that the Federal Congress in session, in the Senate, Mr. King of New York presented a petition on Tuesday, in favor of the immediate passage of the treasury loan bill, and pleaded that the merchants of New York support the Government. A resolution was adopted on the assembling of Congress on the 22d, in the House of Representatives, that the President, Cabinet, Foreign Representatives, officers of the Army and Navy, be invited. Washington's farewell address is to be read.

Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, said they had better hang some public robbers, and shoot some cowardly officers.

By an arrival from Europe we learn that Mason and Slidell arrived at Southampton on the 29th. The Rinaldo could not reach Halifax on account of the gale and proceeded to Bermuda. No public demonstration was made on their arrival in England, but a large crowd assembled at the Dock, and Mason and Slidell were received by the officers of the Confederate Steamer Nashville, and other gentlemen.

The Tuscarora had left Southampton.

McCuffa, President of the Cival Tribunal, at Rome, has been assassinated.

A dispatch from St. Louis dated the 11th, says—"the Confederates are being rapidly reintorced and they are confident they can hold their position. The French Steam Sloop Forgacand, arrived at Hampton Roads on the 10th. The commander Canties and two of the officers arrived here to-day.

NAPOLEON, in his speech to the Legislature says, the civil war which desolates the American country, compromises our commercial interests. Nevertheless, the rights of neutrals are respected and he must confine himself to the utterance of wishes that their dissentions will soon be terminated.

From our Sea Coast,

NORFOLK, Feb, 13.—A Federal force took possession of Edenton, N. C., this morning. The inhabitants had nearly all left.

It is reported that the enemy are proceeding up the Roanoke towards Plymouth.

From the Seat of War.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 14, } at Bulletin Office 4:40 p. m. }

RICHMOND, Feb. 14.—The bodies of Capt. O. J. Wise, Lieut. Wm. Seldon and Capt. Coles, arrived here from Currituck this morning, whence a boat with a flag of truce went to Roanoke Island.

Wise has three wounds in his body; Seldon, ball through his head.

Gen. Wise saw the body of his son at Currituck and was much moved.

A portion of the enemy's fleet is at the South end of Albemarle Channel, where they shelled the Confederates.

Gen. Wise is there.

Various conjectures are indulged in as regards the movements of the enemy.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
RALEIGH, Jan. 27th 1862. }

THE FIRST REGIMENT N. C. VOLunteers being disbanded, a Regiment of Volunteers for the war will be formed to take its place. All the Companies of the old Regiment about to re-organize for the war, are requested to report to this Office without delay, with the view of going into this Regiment, which will receive the "Bethel Flag."

Additional Volunteer Companies for the war will be accepted, to whom a bounty of fifteen dollars per man will be paid by the State, and fifty by the Confederate States. When a full Company is tendered four officers will be commissioned; with a less number, appointments will be given as follows: a Captain for forty men, First Lieutenant for twenty-five, Second Lieutenant for fifteen.

The Militia who have been ordered on duty and to be in readiness, can still avail themselves of this opportunity of getting into the Volunteer service, and the number so doing will be credited to their respective Counties.

REMOVAL.

We have removed our Livery and Sale Stables from our old stand, in rear of the Mansion House, to the "Tattersall" Stables, opposite the jail, where we would be pleased to wait on the public generally.

At our new stand we are better prepared to attend to the wants of the public, having a much more convenient building than the one we were formerly in, and being well provided with provender.

We have good lots for the accommodation of drovers, being prepared to accommodate any amount of horses and mules, and would be pleased to wait on any drover who may give us a call.

We have, also, a good Black-smith shop in connection with our Stables, and would be pleased to attend to the wants of the people in that line.

COFFEE! COFFEE!

IS MANUFACTURED AT M. KELLY'S Southern Excelsior Coffee Mill, Raleigh, and is equal to the best coffee. It is made of coffee, rye and chickory, and is roasted in a cylinder by machinery, and therefore is better parched than can be done by hand. Chickory is not so well known in Dixie land, but in Europe they use it to give a superior flavor to the coffee. In Germany they call it sagorah, and here we call it dandalion. In England it is so highly appreciated that they lay a duty of two pounds ten shillings sterling per hundred weight to protect the growers of it. We annex Professor Emmons' certificate to show that there is no humbug, but it is what it is represented to be:

To MR. KELLY, Sir: I have tested and used the two samples of manufactured coffee—the labelled Java and Laguira. The first equals the Rio coffee of the shops, and seems to be equally good with that kind. * * * I am satisfied that they contain nothing which is injurious to the system, and may be economically and safely used as substitutes for coffee.
E. EMMONS.

This coffee is put up in pound papers, and packed in boxes containing thirty-six pounds, unless otherwise ordered.

All orders promptly attended to by addressing M. KELLY,

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,
DEVOTED TO
POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.
PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall confine to be, as we ever have been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

The News from Roanoke Island.

Correspondence of the Petersburg Express.]

PORTSMOUTH, VA., Feb. 9.

Dear Express: The news of our disaster at Roanoke Island has already reached your office. A sad commentary it is on the inefficiency of somebody, and culpable neglect somewhere. I am satisfied the gallant men who so heroically defended it against overwhelming numbers, are not only free from all blame, but deserves undying honor. The bill of mortality on both sides, will show it to have been a desperate fight; and our defeat the result, not of bravery, but of preponderating brute force.

You can testify that I have not become a prophet under the influence of defeat, but that the very day on which the fight commenced—last Saturday—I said, in a private note to you, that if the Federalists attacked Roanoke Island, they would take it.

Bad as the news is, it affords no good ground for discouragement. We are poorly prepared to carry on the war, if we do not calculate on being sometimes defeated; and defeat under circumstances like the present, almost to a victory.

Many a Southern home will be made desolate by this catastrophe, as all our force, excepting about fifty, who escaped, have been killed or taken prisoners. The Richmond Blues, who were a terror to the Yankees in Western Virginia, are among the number.

In this, as in all other instances where the enemy has effected a landing on our coast, he cannot be reached by our forces. Being on an island, and surrounded by their gun boats, they are comparitively safe. Having control of Pamlico and Albemarle Sounds, we may expect to hear daily of their vandal depredations on the good people of North Carolina. Gov. Marble Nash Taylor's dominions having been enlarged, and may now hear of the inauguration of a New State in Eastern Carolina, with the capitol at Elizabeth city or at Newbern.

The enemy having obtained a footing in our rear, will doubtless make a desperate attempt to get possession of Norfolk and Portsmouth. Burnside and Wool will now act in concert, and simultaneously. Wool will perhaps attack some point on James River aiming for Suffolk, while Burnside will endeavor to make his way from Elizabeth city up the Black Water, and the two form a junction in the rear of these two cities and thus cut of the cummunication with the South. I am fully persuaded that this is the programme, and equally well satisfied that they will signally fail to carry it out, unless there is some most magnificent bungling "at West Point." They have the advantage of us on water, it is true, but then they must leave their boats and big guns, before they can endanger Norfolk.

Mr. Editor, the Yankees are fighting for booty, and they will make a desperate effort to get possession of our rail. They must be driven back. Every inch of ground must be disputed. DOLERIN.

Whisky in the Army.

The Richmond correspondent of the Memphis Appeal says:

There is a distillery in this city, the proprietors of which are making a clear profit variously estimated at from two to four thousand dollars a day! There's a per diem for you! They manufacture whisky! Would you know what this whisky is? It is a chain-lightning blue-ruin, liquid fire, death in the cup, aqua tefance, a more vulgar but not less certain poison than the wine of the Borgias. It has been so well known in Virginia for years that practising physicians, in the country, when called to attend sick negroes on the plantationn, inquire first of all whether they have been in the habit of using it in harvest; if they have, the ordinary medicines will be wholly inefficacious. Well, this infernal drench, which was sold before the war at 23 cents a gallon, and the like of which may be obtained to-day in Hogopolis—I mean Cincinnati—at 13 cents, is eagerly bought up at $1,60 a gallon. The sales of the establishment are only limited by the capacity of manufacture, the demand being infinitely greater than the spuply. And where does it go? Every drop of it to the army! Nor is this wholesale laboratory the only one in operation here. Smaller distilleries have already been established in the neighborhood of the city, and are springing up every day, in consequence of a demand which is every day increasing. There is nothing men will not do for money. The auri sacra fames overrides all consideration of duty and patriotism.

These facts give us pause.

The amount of public injury, of demoralization, of crime, which is caused by this immense produce of whiskey, cannot be computed. The seeds of ruin are thus sown broadcast over the land, and the fatal crop will only too surely be gathered in crowded hospitals, in bloody street fights, in fatal military misfortunes, in the utter debasement of the finest body of soldiery the world has ever seen collected. Can nothing be done to remedy this frightful evil? Are we powerless; Shall the Confederate States of America be left in the mercy of a few unscrupulous whiskey dealers, whom we have more to fear than the ships of Burnside or the bayonet of McClellan?

I am no advocate of a Maine liquor law, and have never believed in legislating men into sobriety. I can never suppose that a ration of spirituous liquors may be rational, that it is necessary to the comfort and good health of troops in the field—though this is at least questionable. But the liquors should be pure and the quantity fixed by strict military regulation. If the vile compound to which I have referred, is to be carried into every camp, and the men allowed to drink what they can procure, it needs no gift of pophecy to declare that we shall be beatch, that our efforts for independent nationality will be unavailing.

What is the remedy? Not certainly in "general orders." Good generals like Braxton Bragg and Joseph E. Johnston, recognizing the appalling miscneif wrought by the bad liquor in camp, have issued strict disciplinary orders on this subject, but these have no effect whatever upon the distilleries. The sale is undiminished. The distilleries laugh at the moral deduction of the commanding officers, and deride the official signature of the "A. A. G."—Clearly there is but one way—the fountain of bitter waters must be sealed or purified at its source. Not to put too fine a point upon it, the distilleries must be cleaned out.

We establish a censorship of the press we legislate concerning the adulterations of food, we protect ourselves againts the impurity of drugs and medicines, we have laws prohibiting the wearing of concealed weapons—shall we not defend our defenders from the poison of the distillery?

CHARLOTTE.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1862.

Important if True.

The annexed important item of news is taken from the Newbern Progress of the 12th inst:

SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY ACKNOWLEDGED. The latest Northern papers received at Norfolk frankly acknowledge that England and France have acknowledged the Southern Confederacy.

Recognition.

In the New York Herald of the 8th, says the Day Book of yesterday, we find a letter from its London correspondence, in which it is authoritatively announced that England and France have finally agreed to apply the public law of Europe to our cis-Atlantic affairs. The recognition of the South by these powers will be followed by results which will amply compensate for the Roanoke disaster. But, recognition or no recognition, let us remember that we are men and meet the emergency of the future with a resolution to conquer or die.

"Union and Confidence."

The annexed, which we take from the Nashville American, contains advice that commends itself to every true Southern heart. It does not ask the question who will avenge the blood of the slain—who will now refuse to volunteer; nor which will you choose, subjugation and slavery or liberty or death—it says we must fight them at every pass. Those of our cotemporaries who publicly advise our men to go ought to set the example and be the first to volunteer:

UNION AND CONFIDENCE.—Let no discordant note be heard in our camp and our councils in the present critical period, when the hurricane of war is beginning to rage upon us in all its fury. Let union, harmony and confidence prevail. Let us dismiss all petulant censure and unmanly repining, and heartily unite, as one man, in the great and glorious work in the defense of our homes and our altars. We should frown upon fault finding and sedulously cultivate a spirit of brotherly cooperation, every man being willing and ready at any moment to take the post of duty and to act as becomes a freeman, contending in the holy cause of right and fighting for all that men of honor and patriotism can hold dear in life. The robbers are now, locust like, swarming around our borders, watching their opportunity to assail the weakest points and to break our lines. We must fight them at every pass, give their bodies to the carrion crow, at every point they assail us, and if need be, leave desolation and blackened ruins behind, wherever their inroads may overpower us. Let us be prepared for the foe, wherever he may come. The surest and speediest way to end the demoniac persecution to which we are subjected, is to meet our enemy with a courage that shall not quail, with a determination that shall keep up their slain in the paths they seek to tread, with a firmness and unanimity that shall appall their hosts. Let this determination prevail, and the foe will be driven speedily from our soil, never again to return.

How we Fought at Roanoke.

The Norfolk Day Book gives the following concerning the desperate courage exhibited by our troops at Roanoke:

It is said that the enemy came up in their boats on the South side of the Island, and by means of their boat howitzers, effected a landing in the rear of our batteries, and that after landing about fifteen thousand on all parts of the Island, they marched up and flanked the batteries. It is also reported that, notwithstanding our small force of twenty-one hundred men against about fifteen thousand, on some parts of the Island, the resistance was of the most desperate nature, and a hand-to-hand contest lasted for a considerable time, showing the most desperate courage. This is said to have been the case particularly with the Richmond Blues, under command of Capt. O. Jennings Wise. Capt. Wise, we learn, fell bravely, urging his men on.

North Carolina Railroad.

We learn, (says the Raleigh Standard,) that Thomas Webb, Esq., of Hillsboro', has been elected President of this Road, vice Mr. Cameron, resigned.

Mr. Webb is a man of great energy and fine business talents, and will no doubt exert himself to keep the Road in the best possible working condition. We wish him entire success in his new but highly important position.

It is understood that the installation of the Permanent Government, besides producing a reorganization of the Cabinet, will be followed by a re-adjustment of the employees in the departments. Because a man "fit the Indgens in Texas" it does not follow that he is qualified for high administrative duties; nor because a patriot "left all and followed" the banner of secession, it does not follow that he should be thrust "down to foot" in the departments far below stalwart young men, whose physical developments better fit them for shouldering a musket than handling a pen.—Richmond Examiner.

The Treasury of the town of Charlotte takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of additional contribution collected by J. A. Fox Esq., from the citizens of Charlotte amounting to thirty five dollars, to be used in the relief of the injured soldiers in the recent railroad collision.

The total amount thus far paid to the Treasury to be used for this purpose amounts to one hundred and twenty dollars. T. W. DEWEY.

Charlotte Feb. 13 1862, Town Treas.

From the Standard.

Whiskey vs. Bread.

Editor of the Standard.

I address a few lines to ask the Convention, for the sake of our common country—which is now struggling for existence—to legislate in some manner, so as to prevent the corn and other grain from being distilled into whiskey. Shall we have famine, as well as drunkenness, added to the desolation of war? And shall the South fail in achieving her independence, that distillers and liquor dealers may grow rich? You have no idea of the large increase in the number of distilleries in this portion of the State; and yet they will continue to increase, if some measure be not adopted to prevent it. The future of this is absolutely frightful to proper thinking minds. When or how this war is to end, no man can tell. All the corn and other grain will be wanting for the support of our soldiers and the people, even if the war might end in a month.

A heavy tax (say $1,000) upon each distillery, would, I think, abate the evil, perhaps cure it—to be paid before another gallon is distilled. And a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment for violation. Yes, tax each, one thousand dollars, and see.

BREAD.

Miscellaneous.

More than twenty British staff and field officers were in Boston last week en route for Canada. They were a fine looking set of men.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says that there is no doubt of the departure of Secretary Welles from the Cabinet, and the appointment of Judge Holt, of Kentucky, in his place.

The Canadian papers complain that the want of arms retards the drill of the numerous volunteer companies that have been formed in the province in the expectation of a Yankee invasion.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Northern Congress have finished the bill making appropriations for the army, and authorized the chairman to report it. The amount asked for in that bill is $487,000,000. This is merely for the army proper, and does not include the amount needed for fortifications.

The city of Columbus, Ga., with a population of about 8,000 souls, has sent to the field sixteen infantry companies, and two full artillery companies. It has supplied to the service five colonels, one Lieutenant-colonel, four majors, four adjutants, four assistant commissaries, nineteen captains and sixty-two Lieutenants.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!—Our soil is invaded by the ruthless vandals. Thirteen counties of the State in the East are at the mercy of the enemy. Three hundred of our brave men are killed and wounded and 2,000 taken prisoners on Roanoke Island. Who will avenge the blood of the slain? Who will now refuse to volunteer? Our property, our rights, our families, our lives are at stake. Which will you choose subjugation and slavery or liberty or death? Arise Carolinians, arise and drive the invader from your soil.—Raleigh Standard.

FROM SKIDAWAY.—There were nineteen Federal vessels off Skikaway yesterday morning. On Sunday last the Federals were busily engaged in landing troops on Great Warsaw Island, and they have erected a large number of Sibley and other tents on that Island, where, it is believed, they have landed a considerable number of troops. A number of horse stalls have floated up the river, evidently thrown overboard from the Federal vessels, from which it is inferred that they have landed their horses at Great Warsaw Island.

It is thought by many that it is the intention of the Federals to make a landing at Adams' Point. Adams' Point is about seven miles from our batteries at Skidaway. The latest intelligence we have from this point is to 12 o'clock yesterday.

During the reception of Gen. Beauregard by the citizens of Knoxville, on his passage through to assume the new command assigned him in the West, he stated that he had met a soldier from Louisiona, who asked him when he was going home. "When I left home," said the General, "I did not expect to be absent more than ten days or two weeks; but already nearly a year has elapsed, and I do not intend to turn my eyes homeward until the last Yankee is driven from our border."

Upon the approach of the enemy's gun boats to the Tennessee river bridge, we learn that the operator at Danville left, carrying with him his telegraphic instruments. He witnessed the destruction of the bridge, and succeeded in reaching Paris at a late hour in the evening.

AMERICANS IN PARIS AND THE ROYAL RECEPTION.—The Yankees are in high dudgeon because they were not received by the Emperor of France at his last reception. A Washington letter-writer says:

Americans were very indignant at their practical exclusion from presentation at the court ball on the 6th ultimo. The account is confirmed by the Paris correspondence of the National Intelligencer. It seems that it must also have met with some official notice; for Senator Sumner to-day offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling upon the President for any official correspondence of recent date concerning a presentation of Americans at the Court of France. It appears that Mr. Dayton has made some representations on the subject.

FEDERALS ADVANCING.—The last accounts from East Tennessee are to the effect that the Federal cavalry are within 75 miles of Knoxville, with nothing between them and the railroad. East Tennessee is too valuable a section to be given up to the enemy.

SUN FLOWER IN BLOOM.—A friend sent to our house, last week, a beautiful Sun Flower in full bloom, a specimen of the Helitrope, which Moore has thus embalmed in song:

"No the heart that has truly lov'd never forgets,
But as truly loves on to the close,
As the Sun-Flower turns on her God when he sets,
The same look, which she turned when he rose."

The mildness of the present winter has been extraordinary; not only is the Sun-Flower in bloom, but Flora has put on her coronal and coronation robes, vegetables are in rich abundance, and even Indian corn is growing in our garden. We very much fear a nipping frost, in March or April, severe enough to blast the fruit crop, and again to prevent our owning the soft impeach-ment.—Charleston Courier.

AFFAIRS AT FORT LAFAYETTE.—Special Deputy Defoe proceeded to Fort Lafayette on Saturday to release C. F. Newman and W. F. Castro, but upon offering Castro the opportunity to take the oath of allegiance he refused, declaring that he would request the same favor of the Deputy Marshal one of these days, when New York was in possession of President Jefferson Davis." Of course he was not released. This is the second time that he has had the opportunity to get out, and has refused. He is a Baltimorean, about 40 years of age, and was taken on a privateer when he represented himself as a passenger. The other prisoner Newman was arrested for attempting to prevent enlistments in the army. He expresses himself perfectly satisfied with his treatment in the fort, and says he has gained sixteen pounds in flesh since his arrest.—New York Express.

"TROPHIES."—We invite attention to the advertisement signed by Captain E. P. Alexander, in relation to arms captured from the United States in battle, which, in a large number of instances, are retained by private citizens as trophies. All such arms are the property of the Confederate States, and we need hardly say that the country needs them for her soldiers in the field. We hope the press throughout the South will allude to this matter, and that every man having such a trophy will give it up without hesitation.

The Yankees wish to get possession of the railroad leading through East Tennessee, so as to cut off communication between Richmond and Memphis. We have no idea they will ever succeed, but even if they should not, it is the part of wisdom to provide for such an emergency. That may be done by building about forty miles of railroad, an unfinished link, between Danville and Greensboro, North Carolina as recommended by President Davis in his message, thus making a middle road between the Atlanta road, which is supposed to be threatened by the Burnside expedition, and the East Tennessee road, for which tories are secretly and industriously plotting.—Memphis Avalanche.

NEW ELECTIONS BY MILITARY OFFICERS.—The law on this subject has thus been construed by the Secretary of War Where the members of any company re-enlist to the number of sixty-four, or more they have the right to elect such officers as they please and to make a new company organization. It had been popularly supposed that, if the old officers were not re elected, they lost their commissions in the Confederate service; but, under a recent ruling of the Secretary of War, it is decided that they will not lose their commissions or rank, but may be detailed to other service by the President.

It is reported that our Yankee invaders at Port Royal are going rapidly forward with the establishment of their colony, which they call New Scowth. We see it stated that they already have a steam sawmill at work. We shall not be surprised to hear that they have a clock factory in operation in the course of a few weeks, and that they have let the contrabands to raising "garden sass" for the supply of the New York and Boston markets.

[Savannah News.

WHEAT DOES NOT PAY IN IOWA.—Mr. Duene Wilson, Secretary of the Iowa Agricultural Society, estimates the yield of wheat in this State the past year at twelve bushels per acre. The price obtained is forty cents per bushel, or $4,80 per acre. He thinks this involves a loss of $2 per acre, or about three millions of dollars to the whole State. He thinks the farmers of the Northwestern States cannot afford to raise wheat, except for home consumption.

The deepest and darkest gloom of the Revolution is the campaign immediately preceding the dawn of victory and success. The most glorious exhibition of the spirit, powers and resources of South Carolina, was given when her capitol was occupied and her sea coast ravaged by the foe, her Governor a fugitive and her sons pensioners on the products of the swamps and woods.—Charleston Courier.

EUROPE.—All the Yankee correspondents in Europe represent the existence of a most threatening state of feeling towards the United States. The blockade of stone and the great want of cotton in all the manufacturing towns of England and France will soon raise a storm that will most effectually blow old Abe's ships from our coast. The working people everywhere call loudly for intervention.

GEN. JEFF. THOMPSON.—This distinguished "Rebel" has not been captured, as reported by the Federalists. He passed through Knoxville, Tenn., on Tuesday last, on his way to Richmond.

The Knoxville Register says that he was called upon by a number of citizens of that place, all of whom he captivated by his wit, perhaps, and soldierly bearing.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

MR. EDITOR:—In the face of the troubles that environ our beloved State—now that the enemy has invaded our borders, I wish to raise a company of gentlemen of grit for the War. Who among the many that are fattening off the misfortunes that surround us, will come forward to join? Skulks and land pirates I don't expect to Volunteer—(they will be settled with hereafter,) but the true patriot, whether he is high or low, rich or poor, will cheerfully respond, now that a necessity appeals, I have no doubt.

I don't want to be Captain, or hold any office in said Company, but I want you fellow citizens, to come forward and wipe out the taunt that, North Carolina is a "strip of land between two States." I am ready, and can be found at the store of Mr. Moody opposite the Court House from day to day until the Company is raised.
